

Costume Dance for Thousand Islands

Prizes to Be Given for Eccentric Costumes—Many Arrivals at Resort.

ALEXANDRIA BAY, N. Y., July 31.— WHILE persons in the large cities are sweltering with the heat, swimmers and even top coats are comfortable and even necessary, with the cool breezes of the St. Lawrence blowing inland and across the islands at the Thousand Islands. The end of the week at Alexandria Bay was scattered with showers, but this fact did not deter persons from motoring to the Thousand Islands, and a large crowd arrived at this resort.

The largest dance of the season was held at the yacht club to-night.
Numerous dinner parties preceded the dancing. There will be a masquerade ball at the Thousand Island House on next Wednesday night. Prizes will be given for unique and for eccentric costumes.

Numerous expert players are entered in the golf tournament which starts on Monday. The prizes are unusually attractive and are on display at the Thousand Islands Country Club. Among the golfers at the Thousand Islands are Mr. and Mrs. J.
Larocque Anderson of New York,
Mr. Samuel Daltell, Mr. John Dalzell

Mr. John T. Pierson, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Osborne on board the houseboat Aradia, has returned to his home in Glen Ridge, N. J.

BELMAR.

BELMAR, N. J., July 31.—The annual championship tennis tournament will open on the Inlet Terrace Club courts on Monday. One time champions and runners up have participated in practice matches on the club courts for the last two weeks. Dr. J. W. Hise, president of the club and chairman of the tennis committee, announced that there are more players registered than ever before for the tournament.

Daily rehearsals for the annual club show, which will be held the latter part of August. The entertainment will be for the benefit of local charities. A professional coach has been obtained to direct the rehearsals.

Benjamin Siemon is in charge of the social activities at the club. The weekly bridge party on Thursday afternoon was attended by nearly one hundred women members of the club. The floor was crowded at the weekly dance to-night.
At the Hotel Sagamore are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tanager, Messrs. Charles Hayman, M. C. Williams, William D.
Connolly and Leon Bowman.

A dance was held at the New Columbia Hotel to-night. A barn dance will be the feature attraction at this hotel next Saturday night.

LONG BRANCH.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., July 31.—Entertainments were held at the Hollywood and Takamasa hotels to-night following the close of the twenty-seventh annual exhibit of the Monmouth County Horse Show Association. There were many dinner parties in the grills of the hotels and dances were held in the ballrooms. Centring many of the dinner tables were the trophies won at the show.

Mrs. Warren G. Harding, Mrs. Calvin Coolidge and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt have sent messages and donations to the Bible school auxiliary of St. Luke's Church for the annual carnival.
The fight against the Sunday motion picture shows has begun here. Testimony will be given before Recorder Leo J. Warwick in the City Court during the next few days.

Outdoor Parties at Lake Hopatcong

Cottagers Start Series of Receptions With Band Concerts—Notes of Resort.

LAKE HOPATCONG, N. J., July 31.— Ideal weather has been enjoyed here this week by the great summer crowd that this resort has ever entertained. On the shores bathers by day and beach parties by night have made every hour count for a good time. A number of New York women here have started a series of Tuesday afternoon open air receptions, enlivened by a band concert.
The first of these was held this week at the cottage of Mrs. Clarence Mitchell.
Mrs. Carlton Marshall of New York and her daughters, the Messrs. Lillian and Mabel Marshall, are entertaining friends at their cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne of New York gave an afternoon fete at the lake on Wednesday. Luncheon was served on the banks of the lake near the cottage and later on in the afternoon there were obstructed other races.

A musical and dinner party will be given at Mrs. Everett Anderson's cottage next Tuesday evening. Misses Helen Carpenter, Agnes Perkins, Mrs. Ferguson, Alice Thorpe and Hattie Douglas will take part in the programme.

Mr. Carlton Bunkum of Brooklyn this week hooked a black bass weighing six pounds.
Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Blanchard of New York have arrived from Newport and are in their new cottage. They launched their new motor launch, the Speedy, this week and entertained a large party of friends on board.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hawley gave a coaching party on Wednesday afternoon. The run to Budd's Lake was made in fast time.
Mrs. Graham Parsons of New York entertained at luncheon Tuesday at Villa Crest cottage for Mrs. J. G. Bradley.

Mrs. Howard Fischer of New York will hold receptions on Wednesdays.
Receiving with her will be her daughter, Mrs. William Wetmore and Mrs. Howard Collins of Brooklyn. Two of the interesting musical colonies which are present here this year have been welcomed as a decided acquisition are Harry Winthrop and Richard Prescott of New York.

A harvest dinner in a unique setting of corn husks, farm implements and barn yard scenes was given last Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Thurston of New York at their cottage, Pine Cliff.

Miss Isabel McMillin of New York is at the Thousand Islands Country Club.

BRITISH EMBASSY STAFF ARRIVES AT DARKHARBOR

WHERE BRITISH AMBASSADOR WILL SPEND AUGUST

DARK HARBOR, Isleboro, Me., July 31.— It was a New York woman who told the Right Hon. Sir Auckland Geddes, the British Ambassador, about Dark Harbor, that he had a place here for the month of August. He is expected early in the month. Several members of his staff already have arrived. The Embassy will be established in the summer house of Mr. George T. Rice of Boston.
It stands on a bluff on Shipyard Point, overlooking Gilkey's Harbor.

Sir Auckland will have many persons well known in society for neighbors.
Among them are Mrs. Frederick O.
Beach, Miss B. B. Chapin, Mr. and Mrs.
George Clark, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crane, Miss L. C. Grace, Mr. and Mrs. Henry R.
Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. Hermann Kinnicutt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold I. Pratt, Mrs. Benjamin F. Rice of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Tucker of Columbia, Dr. and Mrs. Austen Fox Riggs of Stockbridge and Mr. and Mrs.
P. B. Kellogg of Middletown. Many here, including Philadelphia and Bostonians also own summer places here, where for three generations they have lived the simple life, sailing, driving, riding, playing golf or tennis, with dinners, luncheons, garden parties and dances playing second to the out of doors sports.

While there will be more or less entertaining among the cottagers for the Ambassador the absence of Lady Geddes in England will affect greatly the gaiety of the season.

Sojourners at the Bald Mountain House went on a moonlight excursion through the chain of lakes this week.
Tennis preliminaries continued this week, and among the results was the defeat of the Eagle Bay Hotel team by the New Arrow Hotel team. Milton Reimer of New York and Bernard O'Hara, defeated Alfred and John Hendricks of New York, 6-3, 4-6 and 7-5.

Misses Helen Sheldon and Elvira Ecced of New York and Agnes Ernst, Miss Medlar and Elsie Knopfle of Brooklyn, have taken the Hermitage on the north shore of Fourth Lake for the summer.

John Hallenbeck of New York motored to his camp on Third Lake on Monday.
Hamilton Jackson Starke of New York, who is spending the season at the Bald Mountain House, swam Third Lake, a distance of a mile and a quarter, in seventeen minutes on Wednesday.
The following are at the Minnowbrook Camp: Miss Gertrude Kiefe of Cleveland, Ohio; Miss Ethel Annis of Brooklyn; Messrs. H. P. Bauer, Spencer Gilbert, Henry Dallye and Norman Hawthorne of New York.

At the Mohawk—Mr. and Mrs. A. H.
Hiller, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Allen, Miss M. A. Waldo, Mr. M. M. Wheeler, Mr.
James P. Reid, Miss Margaret Crouer, Messrs. Arthur C. Dingleman, George E.
Meoel and Vincent P. Carroll of New York, Messrs. Arthur H. Iles, Fred W.
Bacon and J. P. Callan and Mrs. E. P.
Weaver of Brooklyn.

Big Moose, July 31.—At the Atna-worth's Camp are Mr. and Mrs. J. C.
Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff of New York, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Foley of Brooklyn.

Brooklyn Glenside—Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd
E. Johnson, Mr. J. J. McKelrow, Mrs.
Ella McKelrow, Miss E. McKelrow, Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Murray, Mr. P. S.
Dickson, Mrs. M. S. Barstow, the Misses Bapstow, Mrs. W. A. Wolf, Mr. H. H.
Schulte, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stapleton
of New York, Messrs. C. T. Hack, Jr.,

of New York, Messrs. C. T. Hack, Jr.,
and R. E. Nix of Philadelphia.

The Tramore Hotel has been selected as headquarters for the convention of the National Educational Association, which will open here for a week beginning February 24 next year. About 5,000 delegates will attend the rally.

United States Senator Reed Smoot of Utah passed Sunday and Monday at the Shelburne as the guest of Mr. and Mrs.
George D. Keim of Philadelphia.

Among the theatrical folk at the Shelburne are George M. Cohan, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brian, Miss Peggy Woods and Wallace Edginger.

The Royal Palace has four cottages for sojourners who may be unable to obtain accommodations at the hotel in busy periods.

Arrangements also are under way for the Country Fair which will be given for the local hospital. Mr. C.
Edward Murray, Jr., is in charge of the details. Mrs. Lindley Murray is in charge of the arrangements, and is being assisted by Mrs. Henry Alexander Haines, Miss Martha Jamieson, Mrs.
Herbert Sinclair, Mrs. Huston Dixon and Mrs. Alexander Fox.

Miss Cecil Burleigh appeared here last night at the second of a series of concerts at the Warren Hotel. The musical was followed by dancing.
The Old Guard of New York will give a dance at the Monmouth Hotel on August 20. Mrs. Bird W. Spencer, wife of Brig.-Gen. Spencer, next week will announce the list of patronesses, which will include some of the most prominent women of society of the resort. During that week the members of the Old Guard will come to the north Jersey coast for the annual rifle matches at Sea Girt.

Members of the Rumson Garden Club were here on Tuesday as the guests of Mrs. Samuel Heitner at her place, Seaview. The members of the Spring Lake Garden Club also were in the party.

The initial bridge and luncheon party
